What is Project Atlas?

Project atlas is an innovative, new, and heavy hitter in the film industry. What started with short films with little to no budget, to groundbreaking and creative films that compete with the biggest brands that have been around for decades.

Who is Involved?

The company was founded by Mason Reep and runs as CEO for the foreseeable future. To make the wonderful movies we all love, there is a huge cast and an even bigger list of employees who work on everything from somebody who holds a microphone to the massive team of visual effects artists and engineers, some new, and some old.

Where is it?

All movies produced by Project Atlas are filmed around the world, but the editing of the movie takes place in an office building in Hollywood called Atlas Studios. If you want to see the films Produced by Project Atlas, then you are in luck, almost all cinemas are showing new releases whenever a new movie is released.

Why?

- Project Atlas started as a guy just wanting to make content, then through a long and drawn-out process, Project Atlas became one of the most recognizable film studios in the world. Project Atlas is focused on innovation and creation, making films that everybody will love that are visually stunning and story telling masterpieces.

When did this begin?

Project Atlas was founded officially in 2025 by the current CEO Mason Reep, and has been making films for the past 25 years, usually producing 2-4 movies per year and releasing them all to cinemas which then produced millions in revenue allowing expansion of the brand and increased production quality of the movies.

Best sellers

- In The Past
- Dependent On The Eyes
- Luck With Wings
- Accepting My Wife
- Will Of Joy
- Root Of Greatness
